

ROP

Visit the College/Career Center and check out all of the great summer school classes that will be offered by ROP. Students can choose from learning about animal care, a career with the Burbank police department, automotive upkeep, computer applications for college & the business world or retail marketing.

This is a great way to earn 5-10 high school credits.